

EDUCATION

Parents want you to have the advantages they never had.

Maybe I won't wanna go to college, Dad. Maybe I'll be, like, like this person who figures out something important that will make me super rich. (beat) I know, but what about the man who started up Microsoft? I heard he never finished college. (beat) Yes, Bill Gates, that's his name. He's one of the richest people in the entire world. (beat) Well . . . maybe I'll turn out to be special, too. Who knows? Besides, everybody doesn't go to college, you know. You didn't, and you've done okay. (beat) You did? I didn't know that. You mean, you had to take care of your whole family? (beat) Wow! (beat) So you think college is really that important, huh? (beat) Well . . . in that case, I'll guess I'll go. I can wait a awhile to get rich.
